GENERAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

Procedural Rules for General Conference Business Sessions and Executive Committee Meetings

At the 1985 General Conference Session in New Orleans, a number of delegates expressed the desire for more precise and written rules of order for General Conference Sessions. In harmony with the wishes of the Session, the General Conference Executive Committee subsequently appointed a subcommittee to study the matter and draw up such rules of procedure.

In its work, this committee was guided by the desire to prepare rules of order for the Church which are in harmony with the Spirit of Prophecy instruction and Seventh-day Adventist policy and reflect a sensible approach to session and committee efficiency based on tried and true working methods.

The General Conference Executive Committee ratified the work of the subcommittee and the General Conference Rules of Order were approved. The current edition has been updated for the 2015 General Conference Session to assure consistency within the rules and for clarity.

A fundamental aim of these rules is to facilitate the participation by delegates and committee members in discussions and debates, and in the decision-making process. Rules of procedure are set up to facilitate free participation and are not set in theological concrete.

It was felt that it was not necessary to go into great detail. Specific provision has been made for most eventualities. Neither the Bible nor the writings of Ellen G. White are textbooks of ecclesiastical parliamentary law. Ellen G. White asks for harmony and simplicity in the business meetings of the Church and recommends the avoidance of unnecessary machinery which could sap the physical and mental energies of those called to participate in council and committee meetings (Ms 3, 1890, p. 9).

The purpose of this short compendium of rules of order is to guide church leaders and other participants so that the work of church sessions and committees can move along smoothly, expeditiously, and fairly. These procedures should serve church business sessions like the clear signalization which enables traffic to move smoothly, safely, and rapidly without confusion and delay.

The Church is a voluntary society of those who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. She is the body of Christ. She is not a parliamentary body, a political forum, a service club, or a business corporation. When Seventh-day Adventists meet to transact the business of the Church, they are meeting with God. In the final analysis, it is the Holy Spirit who leads and guides. "If your committee meetings and council meetings," wrote Ellen G. White, "are not under the direct supervision of the Spirit of God, your conclusions will be earth-born, and worthy of no more consideration than are any man's expressions" (Letter 81, 1896, pp. 8,9).

The delegates at church sessions and especially the General Conference Session are legislating, not to satisfy personal or party interests, not to cater to nationalistic or regional ambitions, but to work "for time and eternity" and participate in the divine mission for the salvation of the world—7T 258, 259. Delegates and committee members are warned against a spirit of selfishness, self-exaltation, and pomposity in council and committee meetings (see Ms 29, 1895, p. 8).

The overarching concern of church sessions and committees is to discover and understand God's will regarding the issues, plans, and appointments to be considered. In the light of this purpose, the object of rules of order is to facilitate accomplishing the will of God. In this sense, the delegated sessions of the Church are sui generis (unique), different from any other human organization.

These rules of order are intended to be used with a sense of reverence for the divine purpose. They are not intended to provide for quick or dilatory parliamentary maneuvers to gain a point, gain undeserved attention, gain advantage by suppressing the wishes of others, or to confuse the chair, fellow delegates, or committee members. These rules, furthermore, should not be used in such a way as to become an excuse for procedural wrangling which could keep sessions or committees from moving forward with dispatch. Ellen G. White counsels that there should be "constant effort for brevity in business meetings" (Ms 3, 1890, p. 9).

It must never be forgotten that the letter of procedural rules can kill; it is the spirit that gives life to church order and government. The chair, with the support of the delegates, must use good judgment and not let the machinery get in the way of the advancement of God's work.

Where procedural issues arise which are not specifically covered by the General Conference Rules of Order, the chair shall rule according to his best judgment. However, any delegate has the right to appeal the ruling. In that case, if the appeal is seconded, the chair shall put the issue to the delegates for a decision by simple majority vote.

May these rules of order help church delegates and committee members in their appointed work of "legislating for God" (Letter 81, 1896, p. 8).

—General Conference Executive Committee

Relationship of General Conference Rules of Order to the Church Manual and General Conference Working Policy

The Church Manual and General Conference Constitution, Bylaws, and Working Policy take precedence over the rules of order, should there be any conflict.

DUTIES OF CHAIR

1. The chair shall preside over sessions and committee meetings in harmony with the rules of order.
2. chair shall take up the various committee reports and items of business on the approved agenda.
3. The chair shall work for consensus in decision making by treating each side of an issue with fairness.
4. The chair may vote
  - ▶ If the vote is by ballot, or
  - ▶ To make a tie or break a tie (if he has not already voted by ballot).
5. It is the duty of the chair to hold speakers to their allotted time and help move business along as expeditiously and fairly as possible.
6. The chair shall decide points of order (though the decision may be appealed by any delegate).
7. While it is necessary for the chair to give leadership, in order to be impartial and give evidence that justice is done, the chair should not personally become closely involved in session floor debate while in the chair. Should he wish to express his views at length and take sides in the debate, he should step down from the chair calling upon another officer to take the chair temporarily. It is understood, however, that in committee meetings the president, even while occupying the chair, will be free to fully participate in the discussions and present his views.

DUTIES OF DELEGATES AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS

1. In view of the privilege of serving as delegates at church sessions or as committee members, those acting in these capacities should conduct themselves with Christian decorum, realizing they are doing the Lord's business, not making frivolous, irrelevant, unnecessarily time-consuming, or obstructionist speeches or motions. In such cases the chair has every right to rule out of Order.
2. Delegates or committee members, for reasons of fairness and respect for fellow delegates or members, should not expect to speak to a motion a second (or additional) time until others wishing to speak have had the opportunity to do so (as far as this is feasible). However, the chair may give a person who has already spoken the opportunity to answer a question or clarify previous remarks.
3. Delegates or committee members have the right to speak in their own language, subject to the availability of translators.

QUORUM

The quorum for sessions or committee meetings shall be fixed by the bylaws of the respective church organizations.

VOTING

1. Voting normally shall be by voice vote (viva voce).
2. If there is no objection, the chair can declare a vote by general consent.
3. By ruling of the chair or by majority vote of the delegates present and voting, voting can be by raising of hands, standing, secret ballot, or use of electronic device. If there appears to be a reasonable doubt regarding the result of a vote, either the chair or any member may call for the votes to be counted/recounted (a division of the assembly).
4. The chair may ask the secretary for assistance in counting the vote and/or appoint tellers.
5. A simple majority, or absolute majority, means more than half of the total number of valid votes cast by eligible voters.

ELECTIONS

1. Elections shall be in harmony with the General Conference Constitution, Bylaws, and Working Policy.
2. All nominations for elective office or executive committee membership shall be made by the Nominating Committee. This precludes nominations from the floor or by any other body or person.
3. Only one name shall be presented to the floor by the Nominating Committee for each position to be filled. The Nominating Committee may choose to present successive partial reports when there are a large number of positions to be filled.
4. The Nominating Committee shall meet in closed session. This does not mean that officers of higher church organizations cannot be invited to sit as counselors with the committee.

5. Election shall be by simple majority vote.
6. If there is objection to a part or the whole of the Nominating Committee report, the objector(s) may request that the report (not an individual name) be referred back to the Nominating Committee for further consideration. It is the usual procedure for the chair to accept the referral; however, if the request becomes a motion, it is nondebatable and is decided by simple majority vote.
7. A request or motion to refer should be based on information which the objector(s) may have and which could be helpful to the Nominating Committee. When referral is granted, all objections must then be made known to the Nominating Committee chair and secretary. In counsel with the chair and secretary, the Nominating Committee shall determine the procedure for hearing the objections) to the report.
8. Persistent referrals back, particularly from the same source, are inconsistent with fairness and good procedure. In this case, there is every right to refuse referral and the Nominating Committee report can then be voted upon without further delay.

DEALING WITH MOTIONS

There are basically four types of motions:

1. Main motions
2. Privileged motions
3. Subsidiary motions
4. Incidental motions

Each category has its own purposes, characteristics, and order of precedence.

1. MAIN QUESTION OR MOTION

The purpose of a main motion is to introduce and propose the action regarding an item of business. Only delegates or members with the right to vote may make motions or speak to motions.

1a. Requires a second.

1b. A simple majority vote is required for the motion to pass unless the Bylaws or these rules specify a different requirement.

1c. It may be amended by a majority vote.

1d. Another motion is not in order when a main motion is being considered, except

- ▶ Privileged motions (fixing time of future meeting, adjournment, and question of privilege), and
- ▶ Subsidiary motions (tabling, previous questions, refer to committee, amendments, postpone indefinitely, and limit time of debate), and
- ▶ Incidental motions (appeals regarding points of order, division of a question, and withdrawing or modifying a motion).

1e. In case of a tie vote, the motion is lost.

This provision respects the right of the chair, if the chair has not already voted, to do so in order to make or break a tie vote.

2. PRIVILEGED MOTIONS

This category of motions deals with the rights of delegates or committee members as a whole and the rights of individual delegates or members in regard to the session or meeting. No debate is allowed on privileged motions, and they cannot be tabled (except a question of privilege), postponed, or referred to a committee (committed).

These rules recognize three kinds of privileged motions: Fixing the time of a further meeting, calling for adjournment or recess, and questions of privilege.

2a. Fixing the time of a further meeting.

This motion

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Cannot be debated.
- ▶ Is the highest motion in rank.
- ▶ Can be amended in regard only to time and place.
- ▶ Cannot interrupt a person speaking.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered.

2b. Calling for adjournment or recess.

This motion

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Cannot be debated, though the chair or secretary may provide information regarding business requiring attention.
- ▶ Adjournment cannot be amended, recess may be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Cannot interrupt a person speaking.
- ▶ Cannot be reconsidered.

2c. Questions of privilege.

A question of privilege is used to get the attention of the chair and meeting regarding a matter of business or procedure that cannot wait.

Questions of privilege refer to

- ▶ Organization of session or meeting.
- ▶ Comfort of delegates or members.
- ▶ Conduct of delegates, members or of others present.

Procedure for questions of privilege

- ▶ Do not require a second.
- ▶ Cannot be debated.
- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Can interrupt a person speaking.
- ▶ Are usually decided by determination of the chair (though two delegates can appeal from the decision).
- ▶ Can be reconsidered.

3. SUBSIDIARY MOTIONS

Subsidiary motions apply to a main motion and take precedence over the main motion because they need to be decided before the main motion can proceed. Privileged motions have precedence over subsidiary motions.

These rules of order recognize six kinds of subsidiary motions: motion to table, calling previous question, refer to committee (commit), amendments, postpone indefinitely, and limit time of debate.

3a. Motion to Table.

A motion to table should be used when delegates or committee members wish to postpone to a later time consideration of an item that has been moved. It is not used to "drop" or suppress a motion; the correct motion for this is "postpone indefinitely." A motion to take from the table business previously tabled, is treated in the same way as a motion to table, though it can be renewed if it fails to pass.

A motion to table

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Cannot be debated.

- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Cannot be reconsidered.
- ▶ Does not apply to committee reports or unfinished business but only to a pending motion.

3b. Motion to Call the Previous Question.

The purpose of this motion is to stop and close debate immediately and vote on a main motion or amendment under consideration. If previous question is ordered regarding an amendment, debate can continue on the main motion after the previous question on the amendment is voted. Privileged motions, motion to table, and incidental motions take precedence over previous question. Simply calling out "question" is not formally moving "previous question," but indicates to the chair that a delegate or committee member feels it is time to vote.

This motion

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Cannot be debated.
- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Requires a two-thirds vote.
- ▶ Cannot interrupt a person speaking.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered.

3c. Refer to Committee (Commit).

The purpose of the motion to commit is to refer an item of business to a committee.

The motion to commit

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Can be debated.

- ▶ Can be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Takes precedence, except the motion to postpone indefinitely and the main question.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered if the committee has not already begun its work.

3d. Amendments.

The purpose of the motion to amend is to change or modify a main motion, and thus it must be germane to the business matter to be amended. A motion to amend (first level) may itself be amended (second level), but there can be no amendment (third level) to an amendment to an amendment. A "substitute motion" is really an amendment.

The motion to amend

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Can be debated with discussion limited to the amendment itself.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Only one amendment can be considered at a time. As each is voted, other amendments offered are considered in succession.
- ▶ Amendments are usually done by inserting, striking out or substituting, or a combination of these.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered.

3e. Postpone Indefinitely.

The purpose of this motion is to suppress a motion. Subsidiary motions do not apply, except previous question and limit (or extend) time of debate.

The motion to postpone indefinitely

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Is fully debatable, including both the main question and the propriety of postponing indefinitely.
- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Applies essentially only to main motions, though it can be applied to "Questions of Privilege."
- ▶ Can be reconsidered if the vote was affirmative.

3f. Set Time of Debate.

The purpose of this motion is to establish limits regarding the length of individual speeches in a discussion or to limit the time period provided for discussion before voting.

The motion to set time of debate

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Can be debated.
- ▶ Can be amended.
- ▶ Requires a two-thirds vote.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered by moving to extend time of debate (two thirds majority required).

4. INCIDENTAL MOTIONS

These motions deal with incidents concerning main motions and must be decided before the main motion. These rules of order recognize as incidental motions only appeals regarding points of order, division of a question, and withdrawing or modifying a motion.

4a. Appeal regarding points of order.

The purpose is to object to a decision or ailing of the chair at the time it is made regarding a point of order or to relieve the chair from having to make a decision by placing responsibility on the delegates or members.

The appeal

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Generally is debatable, but not when the decorum of the session or meeting is in question or when an undebatable question is pending.
- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Motions to "table" and "privileged motions" take precedence, as does "previous question" when the appeal is debatable.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered.
- ▶ In a question of appeal a delegate or member may speak only once, except by special permission of the chair, and the chair has the right to present the arguments in favor of the chair's decision or ruling.

4b. Division of a question.

The purpose of this motion is to divide a question having several propositions or sections (e.g. document with several pages or paragraphs) into separate parts which are to be considered and voted on as distinct questions. When divided, each part is voted on separately as if it had been offered alone. For practical purposes, it is better to divide a question when it is introduced, though the motion can be made any time while the question is pending.

The formality of a vote on division of a question can be dispensed with, the chair ruling by common consent regarding the method of division. If this procedure is objected to, then a formal motion to divide becomes V necessary, specifying how the question is to be divided.

The motion to divide

- ▶ Applies only to main questions and amendments.
  - a) Requires a second.
  - b) Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Yields to all privileged and subsidiary motions and to the incidental motion to appeal from a decision of the chair, except the motions to amend and to postpone indefinitely over which it has precedence.
- ▶ Can be amended, but the other five kinds of subsidiary motions do not apply to the motion to divide.
- ▶ Cannot be debated.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered.

4c. Withdrawing or Modifying a Motion.

Before a motion has been stated by the chair, it is the property of the mover, who can withdraw it or modify it without asking for consent. After the motion has been stated by the chair, the maker must ask the assembly's permission to withdraw or modify the motion. If there is no objection, the chair shall treat the request as a unanimous-consent request. If there is an objection, the chair shall put the request to a majority decision vote.

A motion to modify or withdraw

- ▶ Does not require a second.
- ▶ Cannot be debated.
- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Cannot be reconsidered.

After a motion has been withdrawn, the situation is as if the motion had never been made.

4d. Reconsideration of Motions.

When these rules of order permit it, a motion already voted on can be reconsidered. The purpose of reconsideration is to permit correction of an erroneous action, especially when added information has become available or a changed situation has developed since the vote was taken. In order to protect against possible abuse, the motion to reconsider must be made by one who voted with the prevailing side. The motion to reconsider is appropriate when made during the same meeting or council. (After adjournment, the motion to rescind is the appropriate motion to be used at a subsequent meeting.)

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Is debatable, except when the motion proposed for reconsideration is undebatable.
- ▶ Cannot be amended.
- ▶ Requires a simple majority.
- ▶ Cannot be reconsidered, except by unanimous consent.

4e. Rescinding or Amending Previous Actions.

The purpose of the motion to rescind is to repeal or annul an action previously voted. The motion to amend a previous action aims at changing only a part of the text previously voted.

- ▶ Requires a second.
- ▶ Can be amended.
- ▶ Is debatable, except when the motion proposed for repeal is undebatable.
- ▶ Can be reconsidered only if vote was in the negative.

- ▶ Needs two-thirds majority, unless prior notice has been given that consideration will be given to rescind a previous action.

SUSPENDING GENERAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

Under special circumstances, and for the purpose of facilitating the business of the Church, these rules of order may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of the delegates or members.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGES OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

For the benefit of the delegates and the world Church, these Rules of Order may be translated into other languages. The English version of these Rules of Order remains the official version and any other translations are only for the convenience of the delegates and not the official version of these rules.

CHANGING GENERAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER

These rules of order may be changed by a two-thirds vote of the General Conference Executive Committee.

RULES OF ORDER FOR GENERAL CONFERENCE

These rules of order shall apply to both the General Conference Sessions and Executive Committee meetings.

Adapting GENERAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER to Union or Conference Sessions and Executive Committee Meetings

These General Conference rules of order apply in principle to the world Church. Division committees may adapt, where necessary, these rules of order for use at sessions and executive committee meetings within their territory. Any adaptation by a division for use in its territory shall be done by way of supplemental rules or addendum and not by modifying this document

Use of GENERAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER by Other Church Organizations

Other church organizations, such as local churches, boards, and faculty meetings, may use these rules of order.
